Remarks at the “Congress of Tomorrow” Republican Retreat Reception in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia

February 9, 2003

Thank you. Please be seated. Nothing like about an hour’s speech for a Sunday lunch—[laughter]—trying to loosen up my vocal cords for the week.

Thanks for having me. And thanks for serving our country. First, I want to tell the family members who are here, I appreciate your sacrifice. I know it’s hard to leave a district and a State that you love. I know your spouse is working incredibly long hours, and I want you to know that I feel that you’re just as an important part of your spouse’s mission.

So on behalf of a grateful nation, thank you all very much for the sacrifices you make.

I want to thank the Speaker and I want to thank Senator Frist for their leadership. I’m confident in their abilities. I know we can work together. And I’m proud to call them friends. I want to thank DeLay for serving in the capacity he does. He brings a lot of Texas wisdom into the House of Representatives. [Laughter] Texas tough, and I’m proud to call him friend as well. I’ve known Tom a long time, and I’m confident by working together we can get a lot done.

I want to thank Santorum—Rick Santorum, that is—and I want to thank Deborah for putting on this event. Where are you, Santorum? There you are. I know it’s not easy to herd cats. It’s a lot easier when you do it in a beautiful place like the Greenbrier though. [Laughter]

I want to thank Roy Blunt for being a good vote counter, and we’re counting on you to count. And I appreciate—and Jon Kyl. Thank you, Jon, I’m honored you’re up here with us today.

So we’ve got some big challenges facing us. I don’t exaggerate when I say this is a significant year for our country. I truly believe that. My attitude, it doesn’t matter how high the hurdle is; we’ll cross it. It doesn’t matter how big the obstacle is; we’ll deal with it, because we represent the greatest country on the face of the Earth.

I know there’s a lot of people paying attention to what’s happening overseas, and so am I. But I want to begin by reminding us that we’ve got a domestic agenda that is positive and strong and hopeful and optimistic.

We believe strongly that if somebody is looking for work and can’t find a job, then we’ve got to do everything we can to grow our economy. Our whole philosophy is based upon growth of the economy. We equate jobs and growth. And we know the role of Government is not to create wealth but an environment in which the entrepreneurial spirit flourishes, in which small businesses can grow to be big businesses.

And that is why I am passionate about my plan to give people more money. The more money they have in their pockets, the more likely it is that somebody will find work. It is also important for us never to forget that
